Auburndale Junior High
Corona, California
Volume V

There's no one else like her,
Nor like the sun or the moon.
She's like the shining light,
The sun brings us every noon.

She's helpful and understanding,
And she always has a smile.
Don't ever change Jo Pacheco,
For we all like your style.

Lori Whittier

Dear Miss Pacheco,

The yearbook staff of Auburndale Junior High would like to dedicate this Trojan '73 to you. Your understanding and guidance have been deeply appreciated and will be remembered as we look back on our junior high days.

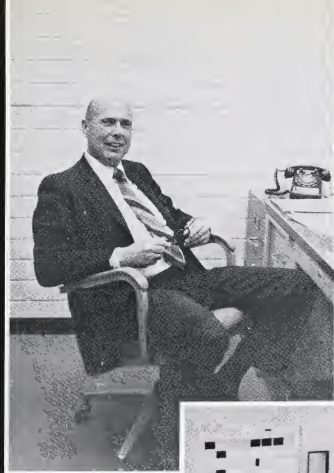

You've been a great history teacher, as well as taking part in many school activities in your spare time.

We will never forget your timer (Hamlet), your pillow, or those lectures. --But most of all we will never forget you, Miss Pacheco, and hope you won't forget us. All we can say is thanks for being you, Jo Pacheco. We love you.

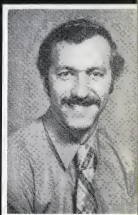

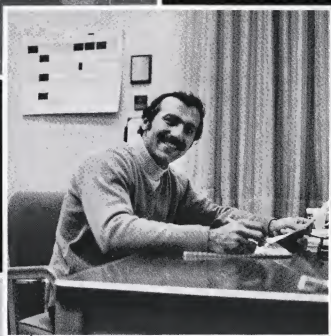

Sincerely,
Class of '73

Remember When

Jeff wanted to be a rock singer

Robin Hime went in the wrong bathroom.

Snork had a new mommy.

It rained for 40 days and 40 nights.

Kim couldn't see the teacher.

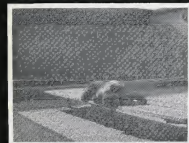

Mike Rhine had four arms.

Everybody attacked Louie S.

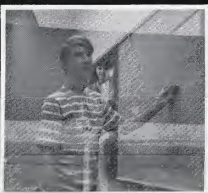

Ruth W. blew a kiss to the camera!

Janet Westfall was quiet!

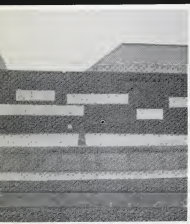

Everybody rocked out to Susan's song.

We goofed!

Robert Fox was carrying his girl friend.

No one showed up.

We hijacked a truck.

We ate on the field.

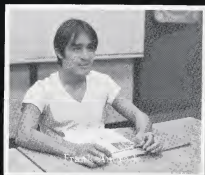

Mickey made us do more exercises.

Keep on Remembering
